

Case Study - 2018
Course Name- Cutting & Tailoring
Student Name :-	Shabana
Age: -	20 yrs
Gender: -	Female
Educational Qualification/School: --	12 th Pass govt. school
Details from the Student
Shabana lived with her Father in Om Vihar Ph-5 on rent. Her father is Bengal seller and earns Rs.8000/- per month for the daily needs. They are unable to improve their financial condition in the expensive city with this amount. That's why she decided to join the vocational course in ALAMB. She got to know about the course through survey. It was difficult for her to afford the expensive Vocational and Professional course in the expensive institute as well as city even higher education and provide secured environment in the community after heard there are lots of news about insecurity of the girls and young women in the Delhi through news and community responses. She Joined the Skill Development centre (SDC) of ALAMB after survey and got registered for admission & had enrolled in ALAMB SDC. ALAMB VIBHA SDC is so useful for Shabana and she loved learn skills very much. She felt very happy that this kind of the support is provided by the VIBHA to the poor community Girls. She always pays regard from the bottom of the heart to ALAMB-VIBHA. Shabana is self employed girl now. Initially she started to stitch the neighbour's cloths then after few days she started Tailoring shop near her home where She earns Rs. 5000/- p.m.
Course Name- Computer Programme
Student Name :-	Khushi
Age: -	20yrs
Gender: -	Female
Educational Qualification/School: --	12th Pass govt. school
Details of Student
Khushi belongs to financially Poor family. Her father is a vendor on footpath market and her mother is looking after whole house from top to bottom. Her mother is house wife. Her father is a only bread winner for the daily needs. There are 4 members in her family including two sisters and one brother. They face the difficulties for the survival in Delhi and It was difficult for her mother to afford the expensive Vocational and Professional course in the expensive institute. She decided to Join the Skill Development centre (SDC)-computer course of ALAMB. Through survey she got registered for admission & had enrolled in ALAMB SDC on 06-06-2020. Khushi earns Rs. 9000/-monthly after completion of the course in High Tech Syndicate Pvt Ltd. She got job during job fair which is organized by Alamb with collaboration of other social sector of society like NIIT. She wants to explore herself more so she decided to collect all the income for her higher study so that she can become eligible for the highest Job and can get big amount in salary. Now- a- days she is able to help her family financially in well mannered. Khushi loved learning skills very much. ALAMB VIBHA SDC is so useful for girls. She felt very happy that this kind of the support is provided by the VIBHA to the poor community Girls. She always pays regard from the depth of the heart to ALAMB-VIBHA.
 Shabana
 Khushi	